The First Day of the Easter Triduum
The Evening Commemoration of the Lord's Supper

April 6, 2023

Welcome in the Name of our Savior and Redeemer, Jesus Christ!

Some thoughts as we gather for this evening's liturgy:

Maundy Thursday (from the Latin mandatum meaning “command”) begins the three-day service often known as the Sacred Triduum lasting until Easter. From the invocation of this service to the benediction on Easter Sunday, it is but one solemn liturgy spanning three days that recounts the whole story—from betrayal and crucifixion to burial and empty tomb and the resurrection.

Tonight, we come to the culmination of our Lenten observance as we focus our hearts and minds on the great acts of grace and love which our God worked for us in our Lord Jesus and His Passion, death, and resurrection. On this first night of the Sacred Triduum, we find ourselves in the Upper Room with Jesus and the Twelve—washing feet, breaking bread, sharing the cup, and hearing of the love that God has for us to forgive us our sins and bring us everlasting life. As we stand in the shadow of Good Friday's cross, we come to the Table of the Lord to receive the fruits of Christ's Cross—His very Body and Blood—so that we may be assured of our forgiveness and life and strengthened to walk with our Lord in His Passion towards the glory of Easter's life.

A Silent Prayer As We Enter Into Worship

Eternal God, in the sharing of a meal Your Son established a new covenant for all people, and in the washing of feet He showed us the dignity of service. Grant that by the power of Your Holy Spirit these signs of our life in faith may speak again to our hearts, feed our spirits, and refresh our bodies, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

“Then Let Us Glory in the Cross”

Paraphrase of the Introit for Holy Thursday from Galatians 6:14 and Psalm 67

- 1 Then let us glory in the cross
Of Jesus Christ, who sets us free;
He rescues us and gives us life
That we may sing eternally.
- 2 May God be merciful to us,
Bless us, shine on us from above;
Let all earth's people know Your ways,
All nations know Your saving love.
- 3 Let all the nations praise You, Lord,
Let them praise You, be glad and sing,
You judge with equity all lands
And rule the nations as their King.
- 4 Let all the nations praise You, Lord,
And may the earth yield its increase;
Then God, our God, will bless our land
And nations worship Him in peace.

The Hymn concludes on the next page...

△ 5 Then praise the Father, praise the Son,
And praise the Spirit equally,
Who was before the light of day,
Is now, and reigns eternally. Amen.

✠ The Service of Corporate Confession and Absolution ✠

The Invocation and Opening Versicles:

P In the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P I will go to the altar of God,

C to God my exceeding joy.

P Our Help is in the Name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

The Confessional Address:

P During this Lenten season we have heard our Lord's call to intensify our struggle against sin, death, and the devil—all that prevents us from trusting in God and loving each other. And since it is our intention to receive the Holy Supper of our Lord Jesus Christ on this night when He instituted this blessed meal for our salvation, it is proper that we complete our Lenten discipline by diligently examining ourselves, as St. Paul urges us to do. This holy Sacrament has been instituted for the special comfort of those who are troubled because of their sin and who humbly confess their sins, fear God's wrath, and hunger and thirst for righteousness.

But when we examine our hearts and consciences, we find nothing in us but sin and death, from which we are incapable of delivering ourselves. Therefore, our Lord Jesus Christ has had mercy on us. For our benefit He became man so that He might fulfill for us the whole will and law of God and, to deliver us, took upon Himself our sin and the punishment we deserve.

P So that we may more confidently believe this and be strengthened in the faith and in holy living, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, broke it, and gave it to His disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My Body, which is given for you.” It is as if He said, “I became man, and all that I do and suffer is for your good. As a pledge of this, I give you My Body to eat.”

In the same way also He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My Blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.” Again, it is as if He said, “I have had mercy on you by taking into Myself all your iniquities. I give Myself into death, shedding My Blood to obtain grace and forgiveness of sins, and to comfort and establish the new testament, which gives forgiveness and everlasting salvation. As a pledge of this, I give you My Blood to drink.”

Therefore, whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup, confidently believing this Word and promise of Christ, dwells in Christ and Christ in him and has eternal life.

We should also do this in remembrance of Him, showing His death—that He was delivered for our offenses and raised for our justification. Giving Him our most heartfelt thanks, we take up our cross and follow Him and, according to His commandment, love one another as He has loved us. For we are all one bread and one body, even as we are all partakers of this one bread and drink from the one cup. For just as the one cup is filled with the wine of many grapes and one bread made from countless grains, so also we, being many, are one body in Christ. Because of Him, we love one another, not only in word, but in deed and in truth.

May the almighty and merciful God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by His Holy Spirit, accomplish this in us.

C Amen.

The Confession of Sins:

P Having heard the Word of God, let us confess our sins, imploring God our Father the sake of His Son, Jesus Christ, to grant us forgiveness.

A moment of silence is kept for reflection on God’s Word and for self-examination.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P God be merciful to you and strengthen your faith.

C Amen.

The Absolution:

P Do you believe that the forgiveness I speak is not my forgiveness but God's?

C Yes.

P Let it be done for you as you believe.

In the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

The Congregation rises.

The Peace:

P Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. He who calls you is faithful; He will surely do it. The Peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you.

✠ The Service of the Word ✠

The Salutation and Collect of the Day:

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

O Lord, in this wondrous Sacrament You have left us a remembrance of Your passion. Grant that we may so receive the sacred mystery of Your body and blood that the fruits of Your redemption may continually be manifest in us; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

The Old Testament Reading

Exodus 12:1-14

¹The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ²“This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you. ³Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers’ houses, a lamb for a household. ⁴And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. ⁵Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats, ⁶and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.

⁷“Then they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. ⁸They shall eat the flesh that night, roasted on the fire; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they shall eat it. ⁹Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts. ¹⁰And you shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. ¹¹In this manner you shall eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD’s Passover. ¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. ¹³The blood shall be a sign for you, on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague will befall you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

“What Shall I Render to the Lord”
A Paraphrase of Psalm 116:12-19

- 1 What shall I render to the Lord
 For all His benefits to me?
 How shall my life, by grace restored,
 Give worthy thanks, O Lord, to Thee?

- 2 Salvation's cup of blessing now
 I take and call upon God's Name.
 Before His saints I pay my vow
 And here my gratitude proclaim.

- 3 His saints the Lord delights to save;
 Their death is precious in His sight.
 He has redeemed me from the grave,
 And in His service I delight.

- 4 With thankful heart I offer now
 My gift and call upon God's Name.
 Before His saints I pay my vow
 And here my gratitude proclaim.

- 5 Within His house, the house of prayer,
 I dedicate myself to God.
 Let all His saints His grace declare
 And join to sound His praise abroad.

The Epistle

1 Corinthians 11:23-32

²³For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” ²⁵In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

²⁷Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. ³⁰That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. ³¹But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. ³²But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 26:17-30

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the twenty-sixth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

¹⁷Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the Passover?” ¹⁸He said, “Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.’” ¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

²⁰When it was evening, he reclined at table with the twelve. ²¹And as they were eating, he said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me.” ²²And they were very sorrowful and began to say to him one after another, “Is it I, Lord?” ²³He answered, “He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.” ²⁵Judas, who would betray him, answered, “Is it I, Rabbi?” He said to him, “You have said so.”

²⁶Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take, eat; this is my body.” ²⁷And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you, ²⁸for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. ²⁹I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

³⁰And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

The Congregation rises.

The Prayer of the Church:

- P As we enter into the mystery of these three great and holy days, let us pray for new life in the Church, and new hope for the world and all who are in need.
- P Holy Lord, the Death and Resurrection of Your Son is the source and foundation of the faith of all who trust in You. Bless Your holy Church throughout the world in these holy days that we might all find our faith and hope strengthened and confirmed. Be with those who will join Your holy people through the Easter Sacrament of Baptism and with those who will renew their professions of faith, that trusting in Your grace given through the work of Your Son, they may entrust themselves and their lives to Your never-failing love. Lord, in Your mercy,
C hear our prayer.
- P Holy Lord, be with this congregation, the Mekane Yesus congregation, and all congregations in our synodical fellowship during these Holy Days, that we might ever cling to the cross of Your Son, find our salvation and life in Him alone, and ever proclaim the grace that You have given to the world through Jesus Christ. Lord, in Your mercy,
C hear our prayer.
- P Holy Lord, we remorsefully confess that we are prone to stray. Guard and defend each of us from the temptations of the devil, the world, and our own sinful inclinations. Forgive our sins, strengthen our faith, and keep us as your own until You bring us to feast with angels, archangels, and all your saints at Your heavenly table. Lord, in Your mercy,
C hear our prayer.
- P Holy Lord, grant that the leaders of the nations of this world would love justice, that they would be more concerned with the well-being of the people they serve than with their own power, and that they would work tirelessly for the common good of all. Be especially with the President and Congress of these United States, the Governor of this State, and with all those in authority so that we may live in peace and safety, and with freedom to proclaim the Gospel. Lord, in Your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

P Holy Lord, as Your Son washed His disciples' feet and then offered Himself in service by going to the cross, give us humble hearts that are ready always to serve our families, our friends, our communities, and even our enemies, caring for everyone in Your Name and using our lives to do your will. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Holy Lord, answer our prayers for those who are sick, suffering, dying, and grieving. Since Your Son suffered as we do and since You know our needs far better than we do, give to each of them and each of us Your gracious care. Show Your mercy to everyone in need. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Holy Lord, You look with compassion and love upon all of Your children. To Your fatherly care we commend all those who have asked for our prayers. Especially we remember before you all those whom we name in the silence of our hearts... Hear our prayers, we beseech You, and grant them all according to Your good and gracious will. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Holy Lord, Christ entered the Most Holy Place once for all by His own blood; He has redeemed us and inaugurated Your new covenant. Teach us to examine ourselves, so that confessing our sins, we come in repentance to receive our Savior's Body and Blood. By those gifts that You place in our mouths at this altar, give us Christ's forgiveness and renew us in faith. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Holy Lord, as we enjoy communion in the one bread and one cup of Your Son's Body and Blood, unite us with each other and with all those who have gone before us in the faith and feed us with Your life so that we serve You and love one another as our Messiah loves us. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P We offer You these prayers, O God, in the shadow of the Cross, in the hope of the Paschal feast to come, and in the Name of Him who endured for us the Cross and Grave, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

Sung to Alternate Tune: Old 124th, abbreviated (LSB # 637)

Who in Thy Sacrament art pleased to be;
Both flesh and spirit in Thy presence fail,
Yet here Thy presence we devoutly hail.
- 2 In this memorial of Thy death, O Lord,
Thou dost Thy body and Thy blood afford:
Oh, may our souls forever feed on Thee,
And Thou, O Christ, forever precious be.
- 3 Thou, like the pelican to feed her brood,
Didst pierce Thyself to give us living food;
Thy blood, O Lord, one drop has pow’r to win
Forgiveness for our world and all its sin.
- 4 Fountain of goodness, Jesus, Lord and God:
Cleanse us, unclean, with Thy most cleansing blood;
Increase our faith and love, that we may know
The hope and peace which from Thy presence flow.

The Preface Dialogue and Proper Preface for Passiontide:

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

C It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

P It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who accomplished the salvation of mankind by the tree of the Cross that, where death arose, there life also might rise again and that the serpent who overcame by the tree of the garden might likewise by the tree of the cross be overcome. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious Name, evermore praising You and saying:

The Sanctus:

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of Sab - a - oth a - dored;

Heav'n and earth with full ac-claim shout the glo-ry of Your name.

Sing ho - san-na in the high-est, sing ho - san - na to the Lord;

Tru - ly blest is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

The Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer:

- P Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of all creation, for You have had mercy on us and given Your only-begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. At Your command, Abraham prepared to offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice on the mountain; yet, in mercy You provided a ram as a substitute. We give You thanks that on Calvary You spared not Your only Son but sent Him to offer His life as a ransom for many. As we eat and drink His Body and Blood, grant us, like Abraham our father, to trust in Your promise now fulfilled in Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. Hear us as we pray in His Name and as He has taught us:
- C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Words of Our Lord:

- P The day before He suffered to save us and all men, that is today, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread into His sacred hands and looking up to heaven, to You, His almighty Father, He gave You thanks and praise. He broke the bread, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is My ✠ Body which will be given up for you. Do this in memory of Me."

When supper was ended, He took the cup. Again, He gave You thanks and praise, gave the cup to His disciples and said: "Take this, all of you, and drink from it: this is the cup of My ✠ Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of Me."

The Pax Domini:

- P The Peace of the Lord be with you always.
C Amen.

The Agnus Dei:

1 O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,
 2 O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,
 You take the sin of the world a - way;
 You take the sin of the world a - way;
 O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,
 Have mer - cy on us, Je - sus Christ,
 Have mer - cy on us, Lord, we pray.
 And grant us peace, O Lord, we pray.

The Distribution of Holy Communion

Lutherans believe that in this Sacrament the very Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ are present in, with, and under the physical elements of bread and wine. And this Sacrament is distributed to the Baptized of the Church who believe in the Presence of Christ in the Sacrament, sincerely repent of their sins, and desire to receive God's forgiveness in this Holy Meal. Those who are present at this celebration who are baptized, have been instructed in the meaning of this Supper, and believe likewise are welcome to commune with us at this Altar today.

Holy Communion is distributed to the congregation at the chancel rail. Please follow the direction of the ushers to make your way to the Altar. You may kneel or stand as you feel comfortable. The Sacrament is distributed in the following manner...Please extend your hand to the assistant to receive the Body of Christ. Christ's Blood may be received in one of three ways, using that which you feel most comfortable: 1) individual cups containing wine and white grape juice will be offered by the Pastor, 2) intinction: dipping the bread lightly into the chalice held by the Pastor, or 3) drinking from the chalice. Children and those not wishing to receive the Sacrament are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing.

 The Preparation of the Church for Good Friday*

✠ The Preparation of the Church for Good Friday ✠

The Stripping of the Altar is an action which symbolizes the humiliation which our Lord suffered at the hands of the elders of the Jewish people and the Roman soldiers. The Altar, as well as the entire chancel—being the symbol of our Lord’s glory and presence among us—is stripped of all its ornaments as we prepare to celebrate His Passion and Death in the Liturgies of Good Friday. Thus, before we leave the church this night, we see in symbol our Lord Christ stripped in humiliation and left in the hands of his captors.

As this is done, Psalm 22, which is connected with our Lord’s Passion, is sung by a lone voice from the back of the church, reminding us of the voice of our Lord from the Cross.

Psalm 22

Antiphon: verse 18

^{Ant}They divide my garments a- | mong them,*
and for my clothing they | cast lots.

¹My God, my God, why have you for- | saken me?*

Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my | groaning?

²O my God, I cry by day, but you do not | answer,*
and by night, but I | find no rest.

³Yet you are | holy,*
enthroned on the praises of | Israel.

⁴In you our fathers | trusted;*
they trusted, and you de- | livered them.

⁵To you they cried and were | rescued;*
in you they trusted and were not | put to shame.

⁶But I am a worm and | not a man,*
scorned by mankind and despised by the | people.

⁷All who see me | mock me,*
they make mouths at me; they | wag their heads;

⁸“He trusts in the LORD; let him de- | liver him,*
let him rescue him, for he de- | lights in him!”

⁹Yet you are he who took me | from the womb;*
you made me trust you at my | mother’s breasts.

¹⁰On you was I cast | from my birth,*
and from my mother’s womb you have | been my God.

¹¹Be not far from me,
for trouble | is near,*
and there is | none to help.

¹²Many bulls en- | compass me;*
strong bulls of Bashan sur- | round me;

¹³they open wide their | mouths at me,*
like a ravening and roaring | lion.

- ¹⁴I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are | out of joint; *
my heart is like wax;
it is melted with- | in my breast;
- ¹⁵my strength is dried up like a potsherd,
and my tongue sticks | to my jaws; *
you lay me in the | dust of death.
- ¹⁶For dogs en- | compass me; *
a company of evildoers encircles me;
they have pierced my | hands and feet—
- ¹⁷I can count | all my bones— *
they stare and gloat | over me;
- ¹⁸they divide my garments a- | mong them, *
and for my clothing they | cast lots.
- ¹⁹But you, O LORD, do not be | far off! *
O you my help, come quickly | to my aid!
- ²⁰Deliver my soul | from the sword, *
my precious life from the power | of the dog!
- ²¹Save me from the mouth of the | lion! *
You have rescued me from the horns of the wild | oxen!
- ²²I will tell of your name to my | brothers; *
in the midst of the congregation I will | praise you:
- ²³You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you offspring of Jacob, glo- | rify him, *
and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of | Israel!
- ²⁴For he has not despised or abhorred
the affliction of the afflicted,
and he has not hidden his | face from him, *
but has heard, when he | cried to him.
- ²⁵From you comes my praise in the great congre- | gation; *
my vows I will perform before those who | fear him.

²⁶The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall | praise the LORD! *
May your hearts live for- | ever!

²⁷All the ends of the earth shall remember
and turn | to the LORD, *
and all the families of the nations
shall worship be- | fore you.

²⁸For kingship belongs | to the LORD, *
and he rules over the | nations.

²⁹All the prosperous of the earth eat and | worship; *
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
even the one who could not keep him- | self alive.

³⁰Posterity shall | serve him; *
it shall be told of the Lord to the coming gener- | ation;

³¹they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people | yet unborn, *
that he has | done it.

Ant They divide my garments a- | mong them, *
and for my clothing they | cast lots.

There is no benediction. All leave the church in silence. The omission of benedictions at the end of the Liturgies of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday indicate their continuity with each other and with the Liturgy of Easter Day.

Our Holy Week Devotions continue tomorrow with the Celebration of our Lord's Passion in the Liturgy of Good Friday.
