WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

In the Lord's Name, Welcome! In this season for rest and relaxation, the Pastor and People of Trinity are happy that you have come to worship this morning to find rest and refreshment for your soul. May Christ, who promises rest for the weary, strengthen you with His gifts in Word and Sacrament as you pass this hour in this "spiritual oasis."

PRAYER UPON ENTERING WORSHIP

O God, You are the Source of life and the Ground of our being. By the power of Your Spirit bring healing to this wounded world, and raise us to the new life of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

CONCERNING HOLY COMMUNION

Lutherans believe that in this Sacrament the very Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ are present in, with, and under the physical elements of bread and wine. And this Sacrament is distributed to the Baptized of the Church who believe in the Presence of Christ in the Sacrament, sincerely repent of their sins, and desire to receive God's forgiveness in this Holy Meal. Those who are present at this celebration who are baptized, have been instructed in the meaning of this Supper, and believe likewise are welcome to commune with us at this Altar today. Anyone who desires, child or adult, may come forward to receive a blessing.

Persons who have questions about what Lutherans believe or have any spiritual concerns are asked to speak with an Usher so that they can direct you to the Pastor so that you may speak with him before communing.

The Invocation:

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

- P In the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen.

The Confession of Sins and Absolution:

- P Our Help is in the Name of the Lord,
C who made heaven and earth.
- P If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand?
C But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared.
- P Since we are gathered to hear God’s Word, call upon Him in prayer and praise, and receive the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ in the fellowship of this altar, let us first consider our unworthiness and confess before God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed, and that we cannot free ourselves from our sinful condition. Together as His people let us take refuge in the infinite mercy of God, our heavenly Father, seeking His grace for the sake of Christ, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.
- C Almighty God, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins, and lead us to everlasting life. Amen.

P Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the Name of the Father and of the T Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

The Old Testament Reading

Hosea 5:15—6:6

¹⁵I will return again to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face,
and in their distress earnestly seek me.

¹⁴Come, let us return to the LORD;
for he has torn us, that he may heal us;
he has struck us down, and he will bind us up.

²After two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will raise us up,
that we may live before him.

³Let us know; let us press on to know the LORD;
his going out is sure as the dawn;
he will come to us as the showers,
as the spring rains that water the earth.”

⁴What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the dew that goes early away.

⁵Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of my mouth,
and my judgment goes forth as the light.

⁶For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The Epistle

Romans 4:13-25

¹³The promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression.

¹⁶That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ¹⁷as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, “So shall your offspring be.” ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²That is why his faith was “counted to him as righteousness.” ²³But the words “it was counted to him” were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The Gradual and Verse

Psalm 145:3, 5b, 6b

Matthew 9:13b

P Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

C On your wondrous works, I will meditate,
and I will declare your greatness.

P Alleluia. I came not to call the righteous,

C but sinners. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 9:9-13

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the ninth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

⁹As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he rose and followed him.

¹⁰And as Jesus reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹²But when he heard it, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

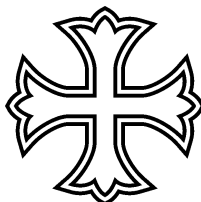

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

The Apostles’ Creed:

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit;
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life † everlasting. Amen.

The Sermon

It's a Matter of Trust

Text: Romans 4:13-25

The Congregation rises.

The Prayer of the Church:

- ▣ Let us pray for the whole Church of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

- P Lord God, as You sent Jesus into the world to call disciples to follow Him, bless all those whom You have called into Your Church today with a desire for eternal riches more than the wealth of this age. Move the leaders, pastors, teachers, and ministers of Your Church to truly follow Jesus by keeping all the teachings of Holy Scripture, that Your people may never be misled, that man-made divisions in Christendom may be removed, and that Your Church may be extended. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Father of all, since You promised to make Abraham the father of many nations, instill in Your Church a love for the people of all races, languages, and nations, which will lead us without partiality to open our doors to every person, and to send missionaries to those places where churches are not yet established. Fulfill Your promise to Abraham through our proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus, the Savior of all nations. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Lord of the Church, send Your Spirit of Truth upon Your holy people. Be with the members of our Trinity and Mekane Yesus congregations, and aid us with Your strength and power that we may be those who go into the world of our daily life and living giving witness to the Spirit's power and work in our lives. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Heavenly Father, since we cannot love You whom we have not seen without loving our brothers whom we can see, give us the desire and ability to work together for the betterment of our communities, our counties, our state, and our nation; and enable the leaders of this world to work together for the good of all. Let Your people be salt and light in a world torn by strife and the power of darkness. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.
- P Merciful Lord, turn us from the self-centered pursuit of happiness to the true joys of loving service to our neighbors. Help us to notice the poor, the hungry, and the homeless all around us; and give us wisdom to know how best to help them in their times of need. Grant employment to those who are unemployed, so that they may use the abilities which You have given them in service to Your world. Grant social workers the wisdom to guide troubled people into the ways of peace. Lord, in Your mercy,
- C hear our prayer.

P Great Physician of body and soul, we thank You for all who work with You to bring healing to the sick, relief to the disabled, and comfort to the suffering. Help us never to forget that You are the source of all healing. Intervene for good in the lives of those among us who are sick and shut-in, especially _____, and all who need You. And receive our thanks for the healing which You have already provided among us. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Eternal God, as we await the end of all that is, we thank You for the rest which You have given to all who have departed this life holding to the Christian faith. And we ask You to give the same faith to those who mourn their departure, that there may be a joyful reunion in the final resurrection. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Caring Father, You are the Source of our Joy and Life. Be with _____ and all those who celebrate the abundant blessings that flow from Your open hand. Grant that as we rejoice in Your blessings to us, we may never forget that You alone are the Giver of every good and perfect gift. Lord, in Your mercy.

C hear our prayer.

P Heavenly Father, hear the prayers of Your children for all of the needs and concerns we have, especially for _____, as well as the requests of those who have asked for our prayers, which we present to You from the things unspoken and hidden in our hearts.... And we pray You to hear and accept our prayers, granting us all things that seem best for us according to Your good and gracious will. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Righteous Savior, since You were handed over for our trespasses and raised again for our justification, grant the forgiveness of sins to all who receive the Lord's Supper this day. Lead us to hold firmly to Your promises, that the presence of Your crucified and risen Body may nourish and strengthen us in our faith. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P King of the saints, we praise You for the blessed memory of St. Barnabas, the confessors of Nicaea, the Prophet Elisha, and all those who followed You, trusting in Your promises. Grant to us also in our own day such strength and courage to imitate their example, so that with them we too shall receive the crown of glory that will never fade away. Lord, in Your mercy,

C hear our prayer.

P Into Your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in Your mercy; through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C Amen.

The Sharing of the Peace:

P “Where two or three are gathered together in My Name, “ says the Lord, “there am I in the midst of them.”

The Peace of the Lord be with you always!

C And also with you.

The Preface Dialogue:

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

P It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, for the countless blessings You so freely bestow on us and all creation. Above all, we give thanks for Your boundless love shown to us when You sent Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, into our flesh and laid on Him our sin, giving Him into death that we might not die eternally. Because He is now risen from the dead and lives and reigns to all eternity, all who believe in Him will overcome sin and death and will rise again to new life. Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious Name, evermore praising You and saying:

The Sanctus:

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of Sab - a - oth a - dored;

Heav'n and earth with full ac-claim shout the glo-ry of Your name.

Sing ho - san-na in the high-est, sing ho-san - na to the Lord;

Tru - ly blest is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

Text: Stephen P. Starke

The Prayer of Thanksgiving and The Lord's Prayer:

P Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of all creation, for You have had mercy on us and given Your only-begotten Son that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. In Your righteous judgment You condemned the sin of Adam and Eve, who ate the forbidden fruit, and You justly barred them and all their children from the tree of life. Yet, in Your great mercy, You promised salvation by a second Adam, Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, and made His cross a life-giving tree for all who trust in Him. We give You thanks for the redemption You have prepared for us through Jesus Christ. Grant us Your Holy Spirit that we may faithfully eat and drink of the fruits of His cross and receive the blessings of forgiveness, life, and salvation that come to us in His Body and Blood. Hear us as we pray in His Name and as He has taught us:

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Words of Our Lord:

- P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My ✠ Body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.”

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ✠ Blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

The Pax Domini:

- P The Peace of the Lord be with you always.
C Amen.

The Agnus Dei:

C 1 O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,
 2 O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,

You take the sin of the world a - way;
 You take the sin of the world a - way;

O Je - sus Christ, true Lamb of God,
 Have mer - cy on us, Je - sus Christ,

Have mer - cy on us, Lord, we pray.
 And grant us peace, O Lord, we pray.

The Distribution of Holy Communion

Holy Communion is celebrated in this place in the joyful confidence that Jesus Christ Himself comes to us to give us in bread and wine His very Body and Blood to offer to us the forgiveness of sins. All Baptized Christians who have been instructed in the meaning of this Sacrament and confess with us Christ's Real Presence in this Holy Meal are welcome to commune with us at this Altar. A fuller explanation of what Lutherans believe concerning Holy Communion may be found on page one of this worship folder.

Holy Communion is distributed to the congregation at the chancel rail. Please follow the direction of the ushers to make your way to the Altar. You may kneel or stand as you feel comfortable. The Sacrament is distributed in the following manner...Please extend your hand to the assistant to receive the Body of Christ. Christ's Blood may be received in one of three ways, using that which you feel most comfortable: 1) individual cups containing wine and white grape juice will be offered by the Pastor, 2) intinction: dipping the bread lightly into the chalice held by the Pastor, or 3) drinking from the chalice. Children and those not wishing to receive the Sacrament are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing.

NOTES AND NEWS

LARGE PRINT HYMNALS ... Copies of the Lutheran Service Book in Large Print are available for use during worship for those who may have need of them. You may find them on the literature table at the rear of the sanctuary, and please return them there following the service.

SUMMER SERMON SERIES ... During the “Green Seasons of the Church Year”, the Lectionary takes us through a semi-continuous series of readings from the Epistles and the Gospel that is focused on for the year, with Matthew being used in Year A. This Summer, the Epistles will take us through Saint Paul’s Letter to the Romans. With its focus on our salvation by grace through faith and the encouragement to live out our lives in this salvation we have received, Romans is a letter which deserves to be well known by each of us. Look forward to hearing Pastor preach on these texts from Romans through the middle of September.

A SPECIAL GIVING OPPORTUNITY ... Last February, our brothers and sisters in Christ at Saint Paul Lutheran in Crofton, Maryland lost their Pastor of three years, The Reverend Teklu Ketema, following a battle with cancer at the age of 48. The Call to serve at Saint Paul was his first call after his graduation from the Saint Louis Seminary in 2020. In his passing, Pastor Teklu left behind his wife, Tsion Kidanewold Endalkachew, and their children, Jonah and Selah.

Jonah and Selah are students at Saint Paul Lutheran School in Glen Burnie, Maryland, where the school has been able to generously aid this Pastor’s family with partial assistance to send their children, especially during and after Pastor Teklu’s illness. Unfortunately because of family financial issues, although they would like to continue to keep them enrolled, they are finding it difficult to contribute their share of the tuition for Jonah and Selah and may have to withdraw them.

In order to help this family who has given so much to the Lord and His Church, both in Ethiopia and the United States, we would like to take the opportunity to help this family to continue to give their children a Christian education. We invite you as you are able to please consider giving a gift to help defray the cost of tuition for Jonah and Selah in attending Saint Paul School. Trinity will finalize the collecting of gifts towards this Today, June 11th. Please make out your checks to Trinity with the note “Pastor Family Tuition Aid”. You may use the “Special Mission Offering” envelopes found in your box set to enclose your gift.

Thank you in advance for your love and generosity.

OUR PRAYER LIST ... We are pleased to have an active ministry of prayer among us, attested by the weekly “O Christ, Hear Us” page in the bulletin, inviting us all to remember these persons and needs in our prayer during worship at Trinity and in our own personal prayers during the week. We kindly ask you to also help us keep this list current and up to date by letting us know of any changes or deletions which need to be made. To do this please contact Pastor or the church office with a note that can be placed in the offering basket at church, or with an email.

REMEMBERING THE SAINTS ... In our weekly Prayer of the Church, the final petition is dedicated to all of the Faithful Departed who are now with the Lord and a part of the Church Triumphant. As a part of this remembrance, we recall by name the saints who are on the calendar of Feasts, Festivals, and Commemorations of our church and remembered during the current week. Some have asked for more information about these saints; so, biographies for each saint, along with a prayer and suggested Scripture readings, are now available for you on our church website.

We Keep In Our Prayers

- ✠ Our Trinity family, our ministries, and our mission.
- ✠ Pastor Gugssa Biru and the people of the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus in Maryland.
- ✠ For the Lord to continue to move the hearts of our Trinity Members to a deeper realization of our part in His mission to the world and to be Ablaze! with a desire to tell the Good News about Jesus with those whom we come into contact in our lives.
- ✠ For the work of our Compassion Center, for Elma Pervaiz, our center coordinator, and for Redeemer Lutheran and the Lutheran Mission Society, our mission partners.
- ✠ Our government leaders, and for the members of our armed forces.

- ✘ For peace and justice among the residents of our nation's cities and towns where there is unrest from fear and distrust.
- ✘ For an end to racism and bigotry in our nation and world.
- ✘ For all those still affected and recovering from the effects of natural disasters.
- ✘ For our brothers and sisters in Christ who suffer persecution for the faith and Name of Jesus, even to the point of shedding their blood.
- ✘ For peace in our world, especially in those places that are affected by war, oppression, or acts of terror.
- ✘ For all those we know who are sick, who grieve, and who are in any need of prayer.
